

Dale Huffman speaks as Englewood Mayor Patricia Burnside (center) and Rev. Michelle Perram look on.

Huffman speaks at Englewood Mayor's Prayer Breakfast

Approximately 150 people attended the Annual Englewood Mayor's Prayer Breakfast on Tuesday, November 24 at Concord United Methodist Church.

Participants were entertained by guest speaker, Dale Huffman, columnist for the Dayton Daily News, who was making a return appearance as guest speaker and who offered humorous anecdotes regarding events he had been part of throughout his career. His particular favorites involved messages and cards from children.

Prayers were given by several area ministers including Reverend Leroy Chambliss of Stillwater United Methodist, Reverend Bob Thornton of the Boy Scouts of America, Pastor Bob Moss of Salem Church of God and Reverend Michelle Perram of Concord United Methodist Church.

Englewood hosts this annual event each year prior to Thanksgiving to break bread and count its blessings with friends and neighbors and to celebrate the joy of living in this community.